

The Rt. Rev. Kee Sloan

February 24

The Right Rev. John McKee Sloan was ordained into the priesthood in 1982. Prior to his election as Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese of Alabama, Kee was Rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Huntsville.

Kee was also Chaplain of the University of Mississippi and also served as parish priest in two parishes in Mississippi. Kee is married to Tina Marie Brown, and they have two children.

Amy Sander Montanez, D. Min.

March 10

Amy Sander Montanez is a licensed professional counselor and licensed marriage and family therapist. Her belief in the mind-body integration led her to pursue her doctorate in ministry in the field of Christian Formation.

She leads retreat for church groups, seminaries and community groups. She is known for the integration of developmental psychology and spiritual development. Amy is also a writer with a regular column in the newsletter for the diocese of Upper South Carolina and last year was awarded the National Polly Bond Award for first place in Devotional and Spiritual Writing.

Sybil MacBeth

March 17 at 6:30pm

Sybil MacBeth is a dancer, doodler, and former community college mathematics professor. She is the author of Praying in Color: Drawing a New Path to God (2007) and Praying in Color Kids' Edition (2009). Both books introduce a prayer practice that is meditative, visual, active and playful.

As a physical and visual person, she has explored prayer forms that cater to the needs of different learning styles. She spent 2009 blogging about her prayer life on the website Purpose Driven Connection—a joint venture of Reader's Digest and Rick Warren. In August 2010 she will become the Artist-In-Residence at Memphis Theological Seminary. Sybil leads retreats and workshops around the country on Praying in Color™.
